

University of Idaho

Toward Inclusive Teaching, Research, Outreach, & Service

NEW FACULTY ORIENTATION
AUGUST 16, 2022 / IRIC ATRIUM

DR. JUHEE KIM

TARGET

- I Identify people's approach to inclusive work at UI
- I Apply this practice to integrate into your own work
- I Come away with a clear vision and actionable first steps for starting this work

TEACHING

I Sharing Teaching Experience

- Graduate School, Online Courses, Co-Teaching

I Participating in Teaching & Learning Collaborative

- Teaching observation, studying & sharing best practices

I Implementing Collaborative & Inclusive Teaching Methods

- CETL Workshop, Active Learning Symposium

RESEARCH

I Sharing Inclusive Research Experience

- Collaboration on NSF proposal as a Co-PI

I Seeking Collaborative Research Opportunity

- Pivot Funding Database, Faculty Success Seminars (RFD)

I Encouraging Graduate Student - Faculty Co-Research

- Conference IASA Presentation, Journal publication

OUTREACH & SERVICE

I Sharing Inclusive Outreach & Service Experiences

- Presidents' Council on Diversity and Inclusion (PCDI)
- Athena: promoting an inclusive and equitable climate for women
- Equity & Social Justice Working Group: College of EHHS
- Region one Collaborative Outreach Network (ROC-ON)
- New Faculty Service-Learning Group

TOWARDS INCLUSIVE..

- I Always be open to new opportunities
- I Be able to Change & Adapt
- I Build a strong network, surround yourself with the right people
- I Find three career mentors
- I Learn the skills of Today & Tomorrow

Action Statement:

I (name) commit to (action)
because this will (value-added) to (desired outcome) .

DISCUSSION

- I How to become an inclusive instructor or researcher?
- I Why do we need collaborative & inclusive research and how it can be done?
- I How do we create a more inclusive space, technology, instruction, and service in our educational environment?

Considerations, Comments & Questions