Click Submit to proceed.

In BbLearn: After clicking the HTML button, you will be taken to a different screen where you will paste the HTML code you copied from Padlet (as shown on second image)

Click the Update button when done pasting the code.

In BbLearn: Once you have clicked Update (and any other Bblearn prompts) your Padlet wall will be embedded and ready for students to view and participate.

They can make their additions to the wall by clicking on the pink circle with the plus (+) sign on it (lower-right side of the Padlet wall)

 All edits/additions are in real-time and will reflect in the Padlet wall within Bblearn right away.
