Fostering a Positive Workplace Environment and Navigating Conflict

Supervising in the Time of Covid-19 Session 11.10.20

A Strategy

When the temperature rises: Open The Front Door

- O = Observe
 - A concrete, factual observation
- T = Think
 - Thoughts based on observations, but not intended to put the other person on the defensive
- F = Feel
 - Emotions you or others may have as a result of what you observed/conflict
- D = Desire
 - Desired outcome

(with gratitude to Dr. Tasha Souza)

How it Works: A Scenario

• Own it:

- I observed
- I think
- I feel
- I desire
- Pause, process, and proceed:
 - Point out what you noticed (rolling eyes, arms folding, etc). O
 - Indicate what this makes you think (that you said something contentious that might need to be discussed further). T
 - Indicate a potentially emotional response you or others may have (discomfort, misunderstanding, fear). F
 - Indicate a desired outcome (someone giving voice to their gestures, a civil conversation on the topic). D

Context(s)

• Remember:

- Multiple different populations and environments: the classroom, the office, the chat window, students, and colleagues (lateral and hierarchical).
- Conversation is a two-way street ...and others may have observations, thoughts, feelings, and desired outcomes of you, and you have to be open to that and mindful of power differentials, operative assumptions, and implicit biases.
- This returns us to our premise of establishing and maintaining a positive workplace environment.
 - Be available
 - Be accessible
 - Be present
 - Be curious
 - Be empathetic
 - Be transparent
 - Set the tone...
 - Listen, learn, and lead
 - Share
 - Follow-up

• And please:

- Stop expecting everyone to be online, available, and accessible All. The. Time.
- Don't assume that not replying to an email is a sign of disrespect or defiance, of being overwhelmed or disinterested –there may be reasons for a delay and sometimes people choose different means of communicating.
- Recall that we are all working in an "and" mode of operation.
- Don't let your team think you're talking about them before talking to them.

In Search of Healing

America is facing one of the deepest divides in our history — and, no matter who wins the election, a difficult path forward

This is a tough time, not just politically, but socially, conversationally, institutionally, and individually.

The tyranny of absolutes is not helpful, so

- Listen
- Think
- Feel
- Process
- Respond

Don't normalize what's not normal Don't agree to be agreeable

"Fight for the things that you care about, but do it in a way that will lead others to join you."

~and remember~

"Real change, enduring change, happens one step at a time." (Culture change doesn't happen overnight)
