PREAMBLE: This section outlines the appointment, responsibilities, and duties of the Secretary of the Faculty. The faculty secretarialship is a position of long standing in the university and this section appeared first in the 1979 edition of the Handbook. The first substantial revision was that of November, 1991, where the faculty secretarialship was redefined as a half-time position (allowing for the creation of a half-time ombudsman position) and the responsibilities of the office were substantially changed. The second substantial revision was done in 2003 to reflect current practice and responsibilities. In 2009 responsibility for vita preparation was removed from the Office of the Faculty Secretary and placed with the faculty. In 2018 section B was updated to reflect current roles and responsibilities of the Faculty Secretary, including oversight of policy. In July 2019 the Policy Coordinator position was removed from the Faculty Secretary as a responsibility. Except where noted, the text remains as it was in 1996. For further information, contact the Office of the Faculty Secretary (208-885-6151).

C. Nomination Process for Secretary of the Faculty

A. APPOINTMENT.

A-1. The Secretary of the University Faculty (a.k.a. faculty secretary, policy coordinator see FSH 1460) is appointed on a fiscal-year basis by the president from among the tenured members of the university faculty or faculty emeriti [see 1520 II-1 and III-2]. The president appoints the secretary of the faculty from a list of candidates recommended by a nominating committee and ratified by the Faculty Senate [see C below]. [rev. 7-02, ed. 7-09]

A-2. Release time for the faculty secretary position will be the equivalent of at least one-half quarter time and may be greater, at the discretion of the president, depending on the circumstances, the needs of the Faculty Senate, and the needs of the faculty member appointed. [ed. 7-09]

A-3. The term of service is three years and is renewable. [rev. 7-02]

A-4. The faculty secretary serves at the pleasure of the president and reports to the chair of the Faculty Senate and to the provost. The provost, in consultation with the vice provost for faculty and the chair and vice chair of the Faculty Senate, conducts an annual review of the faculty secretary. Early in the third year of service, an in-depth evaluation is conducted by the provost and the chair of the Faculty Senate. Included are evaluations by the senate as a whole, by other appropriate administrators and faculty, and by the incumbent. A confidential evaluation report is given to the president for review and discussion with the incumbent by the first week in October in the third year of service. [rev. 7-02, ed. 7-09]

B. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES. The Secretary of the Faculty shall: [rev. 7-02]

B-1. Serve as a significant source of information for UI administrators, faculty, staff and students concerning policies, regulations, and procedures; serve as a channel of communication to the members of the university faculty concerning administrative and regents’ actions; and work with the administration and Faculty Senate in achieving positive outcomes to ensure faculty participation in the development of university policies and procedures through the faculty governance system; and serve as a liaison with the President’s Office to facilitate maintenance and publication of the policy and procedures handbooks (see FSH 1460). [ren. & rev. 7-18]

B-2. Serve as Policy Coordinator (FSH 1460 B-5) with oversight of the Faculty-Staff Handbook (FSH) and Administrative Procedures Manual (APM) to facilitate the timely and orderly adoption of policies and procedures including, but not limited to: 1) consulting and collaborating with the administration to identify and address policy issues; 2) keeping upper administrative officials informed of policy proposals being developed by university committees and others; 3) advising on the development and drafting of policy; 4) identifying policies in need of

Section 1570: Secretary of the Faculty

B-3. Propose the agenda and supporting documents for each meeting of the university faculty for approval by the president; ensure that the minutes of the meeting are recorded and published; ensure that reports of actions of the university faculty are forwarded to the president, and the Department of Special Collections and Archives in the University Library. [rev. 7-02, 7-11, rev. & ren. 7-18]

B-4. Ensure the accurate and timely preparation and distribution of General Policy Reports for publication and for review and approval of university faculty. [add 7-02, 7-11, rev. & ren. 7-18]

B-43. Serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of the Faculty Senate, work closely with and advise the chair and vice chair of Faculty Senate on policy matters and on the conduct of senate business, provide services related to shared governance on request from the Faculty Senate, other faculty bodies, faculty, staff, students, and administration. [ren. 7-02, ed. 7-09, ren. & rev. 7-18]

B-54. Serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of the Faculty Affairs Committee. Provide consultation and advice regarding faculty governance and personnel issues affecting faculty.

B-654. Serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of the University Curriculum Committee, and work closely with UI officials to facilitate the accuracy of all published academic information. [add 7-02, 7-11, rev. & ren. 7-18]

B-87. Serve as chair of the University Multi-campus Communications Committee, 1640.94. [add. 1-10, ren. 7-18]

B-98. Oversee and ensure the accuracy of the Faculty Senate, and Faculty Secretary, Faculty-Staff Handbook, Administrative Procedures Manual and University Policy websites. Oversee the placement of material on those websites and historical records. [add. 7-02, ed. 7-09, rev. 7-17, ren. 7-18]

B-9. Perform such other duties related to faculty governance as may be assigned by the president or the president’s designee or the university faculty. [ren. 7-02, 7-18]

C. NOMINATION PROCESS FOR SECRETARY OF THE FACULTY.

C-1. The chair of the Faculty Senate appoints a three-member nominating committee, with the approval of the Faculty Senate. The committee is composed of the vice provost for faculty affairs and four other members of the senate, one of whom shall be the Faculty Senate Chair, or his/her designee, who shall serve as the committee chair. [ed. 7-09, rev. 7-17]

C-2. The nomination committee shall seek out and give preference to nominees who have the following qualifications: (1) attained the rank of full professor or are faculty emeriti, (2) communication skills, (3) supervisory experience, (4) extensive experience in university service, and (5) excellent understanding and commitment to the role and mission of the University of Idaho and to shared governance thereof. In particular, the committee should seek nominations from, but are not limited to, faculty senate and from university-level committee members. [add. 7-02, rev. 7-17]

C-3. The committee advertises the position, solicits and accepts applications and nominations, and screens candidates. The committee functions in a confidential manner. [ren. 7-02, 7-18]

C-43. The committee recommends a list of candidates for ratification by the Faculty Senate. The senate shall vote. [add. 7-02, 7-18] meet in executive session to discuss candidates recommended by the nominating committee. The senate may not add names to those recommended by the nominating committee but may choose to delete any of the candidates nominated by the committee. [ren. and rev. 7-02]

C-54. The Faculty Senate forwards the names of nominees ratified by the Faculty Senate to the president. The president selects the faculty secretary from that list or requests that a new group of nominees be selected following the procedures outlined in C-1 through C-43. [ren. 7-02, ed. 7-09]
