Limited Submission
Funding Opportunity

SPONSOR: National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)

PROGRAM: ART WORKS – First Deadline (February 2020 anticipated deadline)

LIMIT ON NUMBER OF FULL PROPOSALS PER INSTITUTION: 1

LIMIT ON NUMBER OF FULL PROPOSALS PER PI: 1

AWARD: Grants generally range from $10,000 to $100,000 (with NEA funds covering only up to 50% of the total cost of the project) for a two-year period of performance.

OVERVIEW: The Research and Faculty Development (RFD) team in the Office of Research and Economic Development is requesting notice of intent (NOI) to indicate interest in submitting a proposal to and determine eligibility to apply to the National Endowment of the Arts (NEA) ART WORKS Program. The University of Idaho may submit only one application per year under the FY 2021 ART WORKS guidelines, with few exceptions, as described in the program guidelines (see link below). RFD will use an internal review process to determine which proposal will be submitted to the NEA. Interested individuals must submit an NOI to RFD by 5:00 p.m. PT on Monday, October 28, 2019.

SYNOPSIS: ART WORKS is the National Endowment for the Arts’ principal grants program. Through project-based funding, the NEA supports public engagement with, and access to, various forms of excellent art across the nation, the creation of art that meets the highest standards of excellence, learning in the arts at all stages of life, and the integration of the arts into the fabric of community life. Projects may be large or small, existing or new, and may take place in any part of the nation’s 50 states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. territories. The NEA encourages applications for artistically excellent projects that address any of the following activities below:

- Honor the 2020 centennial of women’s voting rights in the U.S. (i.e., Women’s Suffrage Centennial).
- Engage with Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs); Hispanic or Latino organizations; or the Native American, Alaskan Native, and Native Hawaiian arts.
- Celebrate America’s creativity and cultural heritage.
- Invite dialogue that fosters mutual respect for the beliefs and values of diverse groups.
- Enrich our humanity by broadening our understanding of ourselves as individuals and as a society.

AGENCY CONTACTS: For Art Works, identify the discipline contact that is most appropriate for your project.
