

Limited Submission Funding Opportunity

SPONSOR: National Institutes of Health (NIH)

PROGRAM: Data Science Research: Personal Health Libraries for Consumers and Patients (R01)

LIMIT ON NUMBER OF FULL PROPOSALS PER INSTITUTION: 1

LIMIT ON NUMBER OF FULL PROPOSALS PER PI: 1

AWARD: Up to $250,000 direct costs per year, for project periods of up to four years

OVERVIEW: The Research and Faculty Development (RFD) team in the Office of Research and Economic Development is requesting notice of intent (NOI) to indicate interest in submitting a proposal to the National Institutes of Health Data Science Research: Personal Health Libraries for Consumers and Patients program, a limited submission funding opportunity. The University of Idaho can serve as the lead institution on a single application to this program, and an internal review process may be necessary to determine which application will be submitted to the program. Interested individuals must submit an NOI to RFD by Monday, August 26, 2019.

SYNOPSIS: The National Library of Medicine seeks applications for novel informatics and data science approaches that can help individuals gather, manage and use data and information about their personal health. A goal of this program is to advance research and application by patients and the research community through broadly sharing the results via publication, and through open source mechanisms for data or resource sharing. This Funding Opportunity Announcement is in support of Goal 2. Objective 2.3 of the NLM Strategic Plan 2017-2027: "Support research in biomedical and health information access methods and information dissemination strategies."
