

Criteria for the Oral Presentation ANTH 410/510

- ⑧ Clear manner of speaking (articulation, volume, pacing, etc.)
- ⑧ Professional appearance (clothing worn)
- ⑧ No distracting mannerisms, such as in speech patterns, hand or facial gestures, and appearance
- ⑧ Appropriate use of visual aids (handouts, overhead, power point presentation, etc.)
- ⑧ Considering linking what (content) you intend to present with how (means) you present, and know your audience. Bridge your message between host sources to recipient audiences.
- ⑧ Acknowledge and thank your collaborative host sources
- ⑧ Transitions between subject contents clearly articulated and marked
- ⑧ Precise introductory statement, establishing the intent and direction of the research
- ⑧ Appropriate use of anecdotes and examples to illustrate abstract concepts and/or methodologies (grab the interest of the audience)
- ⑧ Clear summation of the methodologies utilized
- ⑧ Develop logical sequencing of argument and/or content of study
- ⑧ Clear conclusionary statement and, if appropriate, suggestions for future research
- ⑧ Limit presentation to no more than 15 minutes for solo and 20 minutes for dual presentations (extended time will lower the value of the presentation)